9. [] LIAISON Per [], of our office, request, sent by courier to Dorothy Fosdick, in the office of Senator Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.), a package on China for her forthcoming trip.

10. [] LIAISON Received a call from Ms. Swytink, United States Information Service, Ottawa, Canada, requesting a publication entitled "Prospects for Soviet Oil Production," - A Supplemental Analysis and "Prospects for Soviet Oil Production." After checking with [] NFAC/CSS, office, I mailed her the publication.

11. [] LIAISON Ms. Betsy Wolf, Dan Hardway, John Hornbeck and Kenneth Klein, House Select Committee on Assassinations staff, reviewed Agency material in C&R Staff.

12. [] LIAISON Called Phyllis Bacon, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, and told her that I had physical possession of the 28 January 1978 transcript of the Director's testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee. I confirmed yesterday's conversation concerning the [] and she asked me to contact Bob Old, Minority Staffer on the Committee. I called Mr. Old and passed on to him precisely what I had told Ms. Bacon the preceding day. Since she had not told him about our conversation, everything that I told him was news to him. He said that our answers on the [] were right on the mark and expressed both his and Senator Dewey F. Bartlett's (R., Okla.) appreciation for the rapid response.

13. [] LIAISON Called Pauline Baker, on the staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, with regard to the scheduled 10 February briefing on foreign military presence in Africa. She told me that she expected a small Senatorial turnout, due to the Panama Canal debates. She assured me that no staffers other than Committee staffers with compartmented clearances would be allowed to attend. I provided her with one additional name for the witness list: []

14. [] LIAISON Dorothy Fosdick, on the staff of Senator Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.), called asking about the briefing package on China that had been promised her. I told her that I had already sent it to her and that she could expect it this afternoon.
